ORDER REQUIRING IRS TO REPORT

On February 10, 2005, defendant Bernice Taylor was ordered to show cause why she should not be held in contempt of Court for her failure to obey an order enforcing an Internal Revenue Service summons. On the day of the scheduled hearing, the Court was advised that the defendant had been admitted to the hospital that morning with a serious health condition. The hearing was continued and the case held in abeyance pending the receipt of further information regarding her medical condition. That information revealed that Ms. Taylor's condition remains serious.

A hearing was held on July 21, 2005 in the companion case filed by the IRS against the defendant's husband, Ronald K. Taylor, #04-1210-T/An. At that hearing, Mr. Taylor was held in civil contempt and ordered to surrender himself for incarceration unless the IRS informed the Court prior to his surrender date that he had complied with the summons. On October 13, 2005, the IRS moved to purge Mr. Taylor's contempt and cancel the order for incarceration, stating that he had substantially complied with the IRS summons. The Court has granted that motion.

In light of Bernice Taylor's medical condition and the information recently supplied to the IRS by Ronald K. Taylor in compliance with the summons, the IRS is hereby ORDERED to report to the Court, in writing and within fifteen days after the entry of this order, whether it intends to proceed with the action against Bernice Taylor.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
